WILLIAM BYRD
(c. 1543-1623)

Civitas sancti tui

3:53

Thy holy city has become a desert. Sion lies wasted and forlorn. Jerusalem is now desolate.

JOHANNES BRAHMS
(1833-1897)

Warum ist das Licht
gegeben (Job 3:20-23)

8:05

Why has the light been granted to those lost in woe,
and lifeblood to the afflicted, who long for death...

Let us lift up our heart and hands to God in heaven.

Lo, now, we count them happy who, enduring, fail not...
Of the patience of Job you have heard, and the outcome of God, you see...for the Lord has great mercy.

In peace and joy I go forth, in God's will.

HENK BADINGS
(1907-1987)

Languentibus in Purgatorio
(1959) Northwest premiere

Adriana Giarola, soprano 8:54
Ann Wopat, mezzo soprano
Men of the University Chorale

To Those languishing in purgatory, who are cleansed by excessive fire,
and are tortured by heavy punishment,
may your compassion aid.
O Maria!

BRAHMS

Lieder und Romanzen für Frauenchor, Op. 44 8:10

Minnelied - To the handsome one I sing a joyful lover's song...

Und gehst du über den Kirchhof - If you go through the churchyard, you'll find a freshly-dug grave. There, amid tears, a faithful heart was laid...

Der Bräutigam - Down from the mountains, a joyous greeting is sung to Spring...we ride onward, whither? Who knows where love will find its end.

Barcarolle - "O, Fisherman, come here...help me to find my ring which has fallen into the sea. If you find it, a rich prize of a hundred thalers shall be yours." "I don't want your hundred thalers...just a tender kiss."

→ Frisjen Women of the University Chorale

FELIX MENDELSSOHN
(1809-1847)

Heilig, Heilig: 1:45

Holy, holy, holy is God the Lord of Hosts...
All nations are filled with Thy reknown...
Hosianna to the Highest.

J. S. BACH
(1685-1750)
