Germany supports waste management in Cambodia

The German Carl Duisberg Gesellschaft (CDG) initiated in co-operation with the Thuringian Ministry of Agriculture, Nature Protection and Environment a long term group training programme for experts of the Cambodian waste sector in order to promote private initiative in the waste management of Cambodia.

The final session of that training programme will be opened on Thursday, December 3, 1998,
at 8 a.m.
at Juliana Hotel, Phnom Penh.

Speeches will be presented by H.E.M. Mok Mareth, Minister for Environment of the Kingdom of Cambodia, and the Chargé d'affaires of the German Embassy Phnom Penh.

The media is invited to attend the function.
