

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~NO FORN~~

(b)(3):10 USC 424

Folder 26

BIOGRAPHIC DATA OF MARCELINO

Name: Victor Manuel Flores

Place of birth: (b)(6)

Marital status: Single

Last residence: (b)(6)

Education: (b)(6)

Profession or trade: Industrial mechanic.

Received military instruction at San Salvador Vulcano and at Oregano.

He was never arrested and had no vice. He was passive in character. He had no other relatives in the FAL. He joined FAL in February 1980. He joined the Paracentral Front, San Pedro Hills Zone, on 26 Jan 1982. He began collaborating with the revolutionary movement in 1979.

His parents: (b)(6)

The comrade fell while heroically fighting enemy forces which were protecting the bridge by the dry ravine. He was with the group that was to provide cover for those in the forward position who were blowing up the bridge. In the process of dislodging the enemy that was there he was hit by enemy fire.

He was (b)(6) to take up another position after having attacked an enemy trench on 2 April 1982. Comrade Marcelino, another example of great heroism. Comrade Marcelino will live indefinitely in the hearts of his glorious people for whom he fought.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~NO FORN~~