JIN CHIANG FIRES WORKERS INVOLVED IN STRIKE

On April 24, 1999, the management of Jin Chiang garment factory (Street 528 behind the Plaza Hotel) fired the three workers that it demoted last week because of their involvement in a strike on April 22, 1999. The management also fired five additional workers who complained to the management that the demotion of Seng Navy, Un Sophanny and Chhet Bun Thorn violated the agreement which ended the April 22 strike. The agreement expressly stated that there were to be no repercussions for workers involved in the strike.

Workers striked for one day last week in order to demand an end to arbitrary dismissals and demotions, the election and recognition of a workers' representative and an end to salary cuts when workers miss work due to illness.
