OUTCOMES OF THE 6 DECEMBER 2003 MEETING

The Alliance of Democrats would like to express its sincere and deep gratitude to His Majesty the King for his august chairmanship of the second meeting in two days of the working parties in their attempt to break the political impasse. The Alliance is very pleased to note the following outcomes of the second meeting.

- The National Assembly is to open its first session on 15 December, or soon thereafter, under the chairmanship of its oldest member as called for in the Constitution.
- The working groups of three parties, Cambodian People's Party, Funcinpec Party, and Sam Rainsy Party are to meet after the opening of National Assembly to work out political platforms and implementation mechanisms for the new legitimate National Assembly and Government.
