Dear Cliff:

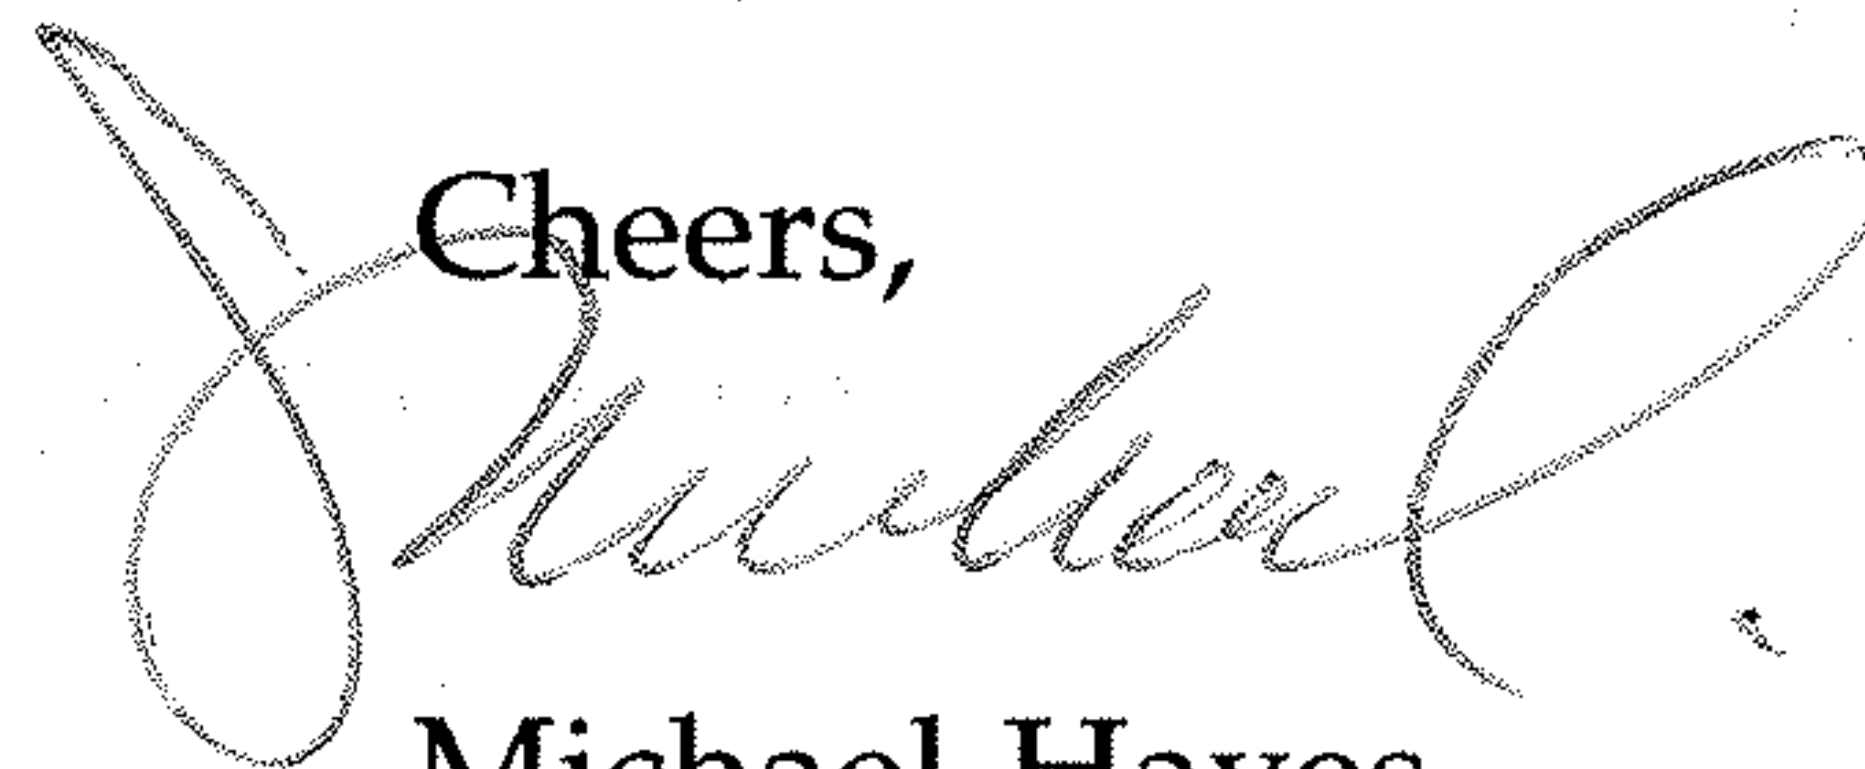

Thank you for your fax of August 22.

1. Subscription for one year is U.S.$90. A complete set of back issues costs $166 for the issues ($2 per issue) and $104 for the postage and handling. Payment can only be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank made out to "Phnom Penh Post Publishing". If you fax me the go ahead that the check is in the mail, we will send out the back issues and start your sub.

2. We have a friend who is going to the U.S. this Friday who can hand carry 100 copies of the PPPost for your upcoming seminar as give-aways. But we need to have an address to send them to via the U.S. postal system (mailing them from Bangkok would cost us an arm and a leg). Can you fax me back an address by tomorrow night?

Sorry to be so brief, but we are under the gun to keep the paper on track both economically and politically (if you haven't seen the news the gov is considering a case against me for "disinformation and creating instability").

Cheers,

Michael Hayes

Dear Michael:

Greetings from Denver. I hope all is well with you in the several months since we last spoke in Phnom Penh.

I am pleased to report that the investment vehicle we discussed has taken shape and form. Though I'll save the details until we have a chance to talk again, things have been going quite well.

In the meantime, two topics of immediate interest to you:

1. I would like to order a subscription and the full back issue package as soon as possible. Please let me know what payment form is most expeditious and the approximate delivery time for the back order package (can you accept VISA?) I would be willing to support an expedited shipping charge.

2. Mekong Pacific will be taking a lead role in a conference on Cambodia and Laos at Georgetown University in November. The focus will be investment and economic development. Since the event could present a significant marketing opportunity for the Post, you may wish to consider either some form of sponsorship or marketing distribution (e.g. sample copies and subscription information, reprints for inclusion in a reading packet, etc.). I would be pleased to coordinate your participation in whatever way you deem appropriate.

How many where part

I will be in Denver until Sunday (fax 1-303-436-1694), departing for Washington (fax 1-202-328-4714) that evening where I will remain for the week of the 28th. I look forward to hearing from you and to our next opportunity to meet in Phnom Penh.

Best Regards,

Cliff
