VAUGHAN WILLIAMS Let Us Now Praise Famous Men (1923)
(1872-1958)

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begot us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power. Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge. Such as found out musical tunes and recited verses in writing. All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. And some there be which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.
Ecclesiasticus XLIV

BRAHMS
(1833-1897)

Lovesong Waltzes, Opus 52 (1868)

*Tell me, maiden
Deep in thunder roars the tide
Oh, these women
Like the evening sunset's rapture
The tender hopvine wanders
There was a tiny, pretty bird
How dear, alas, was life together
When your eyes so fondly seek
On Danube's border
Oh, how calm the river flows
No, I will not listen to them
Locksmith, go and bring me padlocks
Every bird that soars the sky
See how bright the fountain gleams
Nightingale, you sing so sweet
My love is a well
Don't wander, my light
Each tender leaf is trembling*
