for the Japanese Cultural Grant Assistance

November 20th, 2003 at 15:00, at the Embassy of Japan
(Editors are invited for reporting and photo coverage)

In response to the request of the Cambodian Football Federation (CFF), the Government of Japan has decided to provide, through its Japanese Cultural Grant Assistance for Grass-roots Projects, a total amount of thirteen thousand two hundred and thirty four US$ (US$ 13, 234) for the supply of sports and audio-visual equipment. The contracts will be signed between H.E.Mr. Gotaro OGAWA, Ambassador of Japan to the Kingdom of Cambodia and H.E.Mr.Khek Ravy, President of the Cambodian Football Federation (CFF).

The purpose of the project is to provide the National Football Center with basic training equipment and teaching materials in order to enable the center to function as a national center for football. The list of the equipment is attached hereto. The equipment will be used to conduct various training programmes for football trainers, coaches, referees and players from children to those at national level who benefit from the center.

* Note that the Grant Contracts for another twelve projects for the Japanese Grant Assistance for Grass-roots-human security Projects will also be signed in the same ceremony.
