Dear Mr. Hayes,

I thought you might be interested in this recent article in the largest newspaper in Denver, Colorado. I was pleasantly surprised to find your name mentioned with a quote.

We recently moved from the Hawaiian island of Kauai to Denver. Before that, my wife and I had worked in Site II on the Thai side of the border. When we lived in Thailand, we always read with interest the PPP. I am fairly certain we were the only subscriber on Kauai. And now, I suspect we are one of the few in Denver. There are a number of Khmer in Denver, and interested barong that read each issue here with great interest. Thanks for all your good work.

I, my wife, and daughter will be in Phnom Penh briefly after the eclipse on 25 October to 27 October. Mostly, we will be visiting Khmer and expat friends. If possible, we would like to stop by your offices to say hello. Would that be OK?

Sincerely,
