 who was here two years ago and that the Ministry Council this man wants to go up with us to Madelon At 4 P.M. Alexander & I came to the Malakka house & our departure has been postponed till tomorrow by Capt^{ain} De Beille the Consul on the plea that he did not get the Notice from Lynch for our departure until 10 o'clock this morning, & so he cannot finish his work, the fact is that the Notice was sent yesterday before sunset & he was not to be found, & this morning when they took the Notice to him he was asleep until 10 o'clock when he saw it; We have finished loading all the cargo by 11 AM. and we will be in motion and all passengers on board and are therefore to remain idle doing nothing until tomorrow simply to wait for Capt Deille who will not have to write any letters & has no work whatever to do. He is so young & has no experience of the world.

 In the evening came Jeboary & his wife & father M^r

 from Lynch of our departure until 10 o'clock this morning, & so he cannot finish his

 and an attempt to be made till doing nothing until
 Capt. Bewell who will not have to write any letters & has no
 young yet & has no experience of the work.

In the evening came George
 & his wife & father Mr.

 & going up with us) Mr. Johnston & Nelson 10 AM. They stopped till 7 P.M. Weather quite with N.W. Wind since noon & cool too, it is too cool out here I have got cold all over my body & bones.

 April that as the mail steamer was passing Fair at 11 P.M. she will probably be here this evening & he should recommend us to depart till 8 P.M. for her arrival. So we are to remain till that time to see if she arrives. That is an other detour; all our 1st class passengers are on board, Porfai Rogoski & Alexander were with me they left me at 6 P.M.; Porfai is going up with us to Gorna with Ladka the Arab of Maghail; We have with Mr. Bedford the Superintendent of Post office for his letters He writes to me that King left at 5 p.m. & left the river still rising at the desert around the town is flooded from both rivers the supplies too all the constructions are destroyed and it is expected to rise still more. Capt. Clements has not come down again this trip though he is better. The Wholifok

In passing Seyaffin (opposite Ashiphan) we saw the desert more like a sea only the mounds are standing visible, and large mounds of water is pouring out into the river it is the size of the Suptanote which has come here & being higher than the Suptanote.

At 9.30 passed Ashiphan the surrounding desert and cultivation are all under 1894 I was yesterday having in all fallen to bricks from its highest side.

I wrote a letter to Messrs. Bayly at Marsella dated 10/10/94 with the following text. Miss Woods had breakfast; I called on Messrs. Bayly of Haberm (Marsella) who was slightly injured to the house he had got lately from the Latin although the one that Meredith used to use to live in formerly. I called also on Mrs. Achille he is the same as before & very well; Dr. Patten is attending him he complains of constipation caused by a sort of an internal boil near the anus which is enlarged & requires operation. I called at 4 P.M. on Captain Clements and Alice he is much better now, and will go down this week. They asked me to break fast with them tomorrow. I went at 5 P.M. to the Office to Mr. Clark for money out to pay the Officers etc; came home and at 6 called on Milton Harris.

to dine there, Catherine Spychke the three sons also came to dine. Young Michael & Gabriel, at 10 P.M. I came home
I. Kelly George & little Charles.
I. Kelly George & Jim, but rather warm. At 7 am called on Meredith & family & then came on board. The Steamer left this morning at 5 am.
The trip fell out better than I expected. At 10 called on Meredith in his new house at Paris Street he has lived for 7 or 8 years I then called to his house to see the office & family. I then left and went to Captain Clements and breakfasted with him.
Alice & little Charles left at 1 P.M. came home at 3 came on before a very heavy rain. I called attending him, he complained

 of constipation caused by a sort of an internal heat near the
 which is enlarged & requires operation. I applied at 4 P.M. from Captain Clements and Alice he is much better. Now, and will go down this night, they asked me to look first with
 5 P.M. to the Office to Mr. Clarke for Agency and to pay the
 at 6 called on Clifton Howard to dine there, Catherine & Josephine she there also came to dine. Young Michael & Gabriel, at 10 P.M. came home S. Eliza George & little Clementy S. Eliza George & Jim, but neither arrived. at 7 AM called on Mercedes & Emilia & then came on board; the Doctor and left this morning at 5 AM;

 the rain fell and other left at 10 called on Blooming in his New Room at Pasifheren he has time for 70 S. King & year
 office & Blooming's wife and then
 and was supported with him, Alice & Sister Emilia & left at 1 P.M. came home at 3. came on board. There is very little cargo remaining, the Jews are in their holy days & the to go on is nearly closed. at 4 P.M. went home at 6 went over to Sister Eliza & dine there, at 8 P.M. came home, found Maria's wife of Mercedes had come to wash my clothes tomorrow.

 Could not sleep at all, the night is so squally with lightning & few drops of rain. It is so very warm in the room & the flees are so troubling me they are swarmed in my bed. I passed a very miserable night not a wink of sleep till day break.
