1. [redacted] Carlos Anleu, President of the student association within the Faculty of Economics at the University of San Carlos in Guatemala City, delivered an invitation from the Guatemalan Communist Party (PGT) to the Ramos faction of the Communist Party of Honduras (PCH/Ramos) to attend a conference in Guatemala City during the week of 1 June 1970. Anleu stated that the purpose of the conference, to which representatives of the Communist Party of El Salvador (PCES) were also invited, was to discuss mutual problems and future strategies, especially as they pertain to youth and students. [redacted] Comment: Another probable reason for the conference is to bring about a closer working relationship between the PCH and the PCES and to provide an opportunity for an exchange of views.)

2. In an answering letter from the PCH to the PGT, Rigoberto Padilla Rush, member of the Secretariat of the Political Commission of the PCH/Ramos, accepted the invitation and stated that the Honduran delegate, who is a member of a municipal committee and primarily concerned with youth matters, would be arriving in Guatemala on 3 or 4 June. The letter contains a greeting for comrade "Hermogenes" and is signed "Ernesto," an alias used by Padilla. [redacted] Comment:
