Dear Bob:

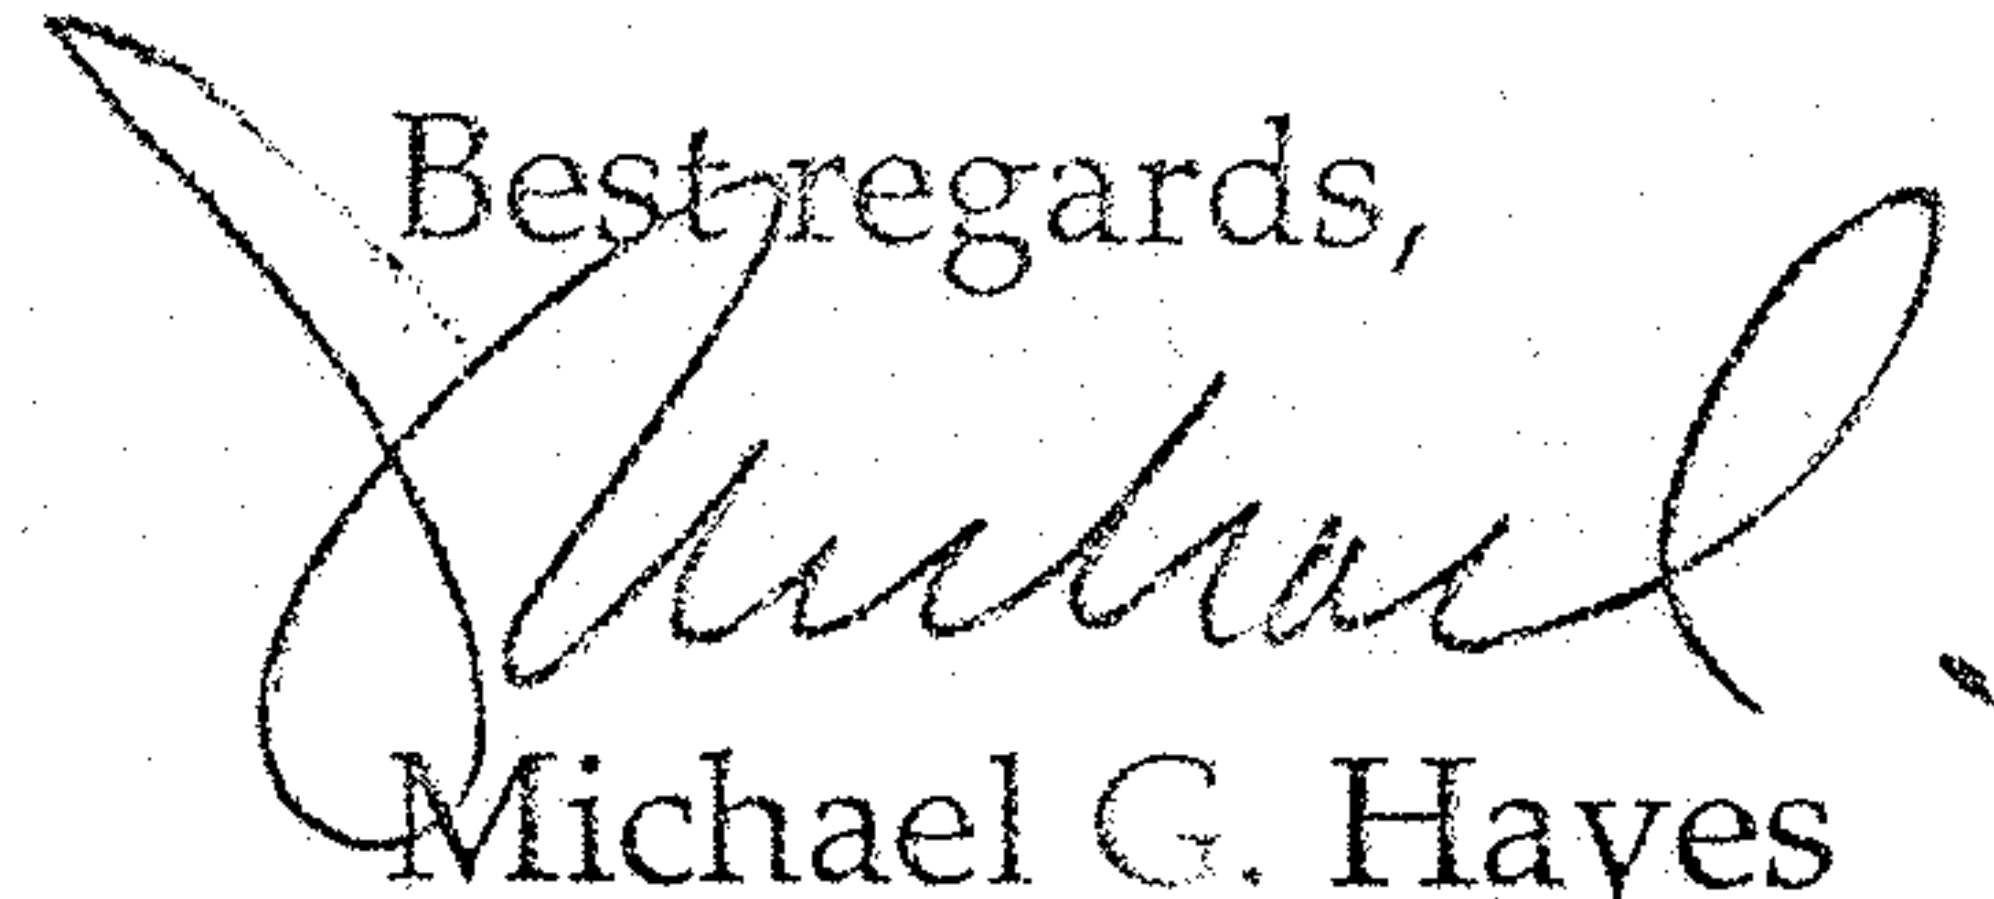

Greetings from the Pearl of the Mekong.

Do you have a Poynter Institute catalog for 1996 that you could send me at our international mailing address listed above? As I skimmed through the one you gave me in Korea, I realized that the months have flown by and the year is already over.

Otherwise, much of my time of late has been consumed with trying to figure out if the government is going to take me to court for printing "disinformation" (read "the truth"). King Sihanouk has already agreed to give me amnesty if I'm convicted, and the media outcry in the region seems to have convinced government leaders that they are barking up the wrong tree. The issue is not dead yet, and the process has been both nerve wracking and extremely entertaining.

Thanks for your help on the catalog.

Best regards,

Michael G. Hayes
