

His Majesty Samdech Norodom Sihanouk,
King of Cambodia,

Phnom Penh

Upon the successful conclusion of my state visit to your country, please allow me to extend once again to Your Majesty and, through you, to the Government and people of the Kingdom of Cambodia, my most sincere gratitude for the warm welcome and gracious hospitality accorded us.

During my visit, I had very sincere, friendly and fruitful meetings with Your Majesty and other leaders of your country. Our two sides have reached extensive consensus on further strengthening China-Cambodia good-neighborly friendship and issues of mutual interest and deepened the understanding and friendship between us. The peaceful and stable situation in your country, the achievements in your economic reconstruction and the profound sentiments of the Cambodian people towards the Chinese people have left us with very deep impression. The visit has achieved complete success. I am deeply convinced that, with the concerted efforts of both sides, China-Cambodia friendship forged and nurtured by Your Majesty and Chinese leaders of the successive generations will continue to grow and consolidate in the years to come.

May the traditional friendly relations and cooperation between China and Cambodia grow in strength and develop continuously in the new century.

May the Kingdom of Cambodia enjoy prosperity and its people well-being.

Jiang Zemin

President of
The People's Republic of China
