6. VTT Model Update

- Provides for updating ground-water movement model with new information that has become available the last six or seven years
- Increased knowledge of the Hanford Site allows for better reaction times during emergency situations
- The model is available for use by any of the contractors at the Hanford Site.