is now being typed. The report should be ready to go to clearance in February.

The motor for the 5 horsepower pump has been returned to the vendor.

AQT I attended a 5-day short course on Water Well Hydraulics. The course was very good, and the information I gained will enable me to be more effective in conducting aquifer tests.