Phillip,

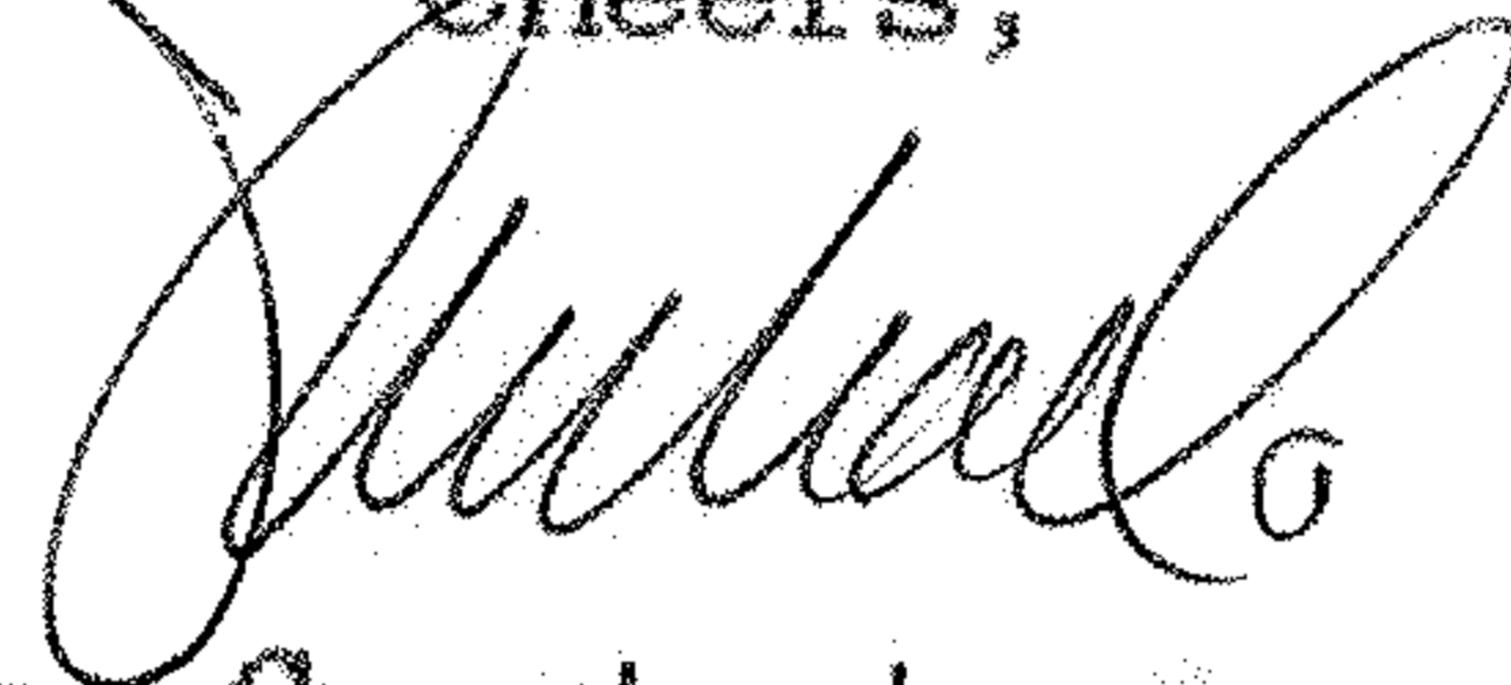

For our next issue of the Post, to come out two weeks from this Friday, I plan to run at least three stories dealing with the ethnic minorities in Rattanakiri. Thus I'm wondering if you might have some photos from your trip that we could use to supplement the stories.

I'm coming to Bangkok tomorrow, with this issue, and will return to PP on Friday. I'm alerting you in advance because as you know we need to use prints and maybe I could bring some of yours back with me in three days.

I'll be staying at the Taipan hotel (tel:260-9888, 260-9898). I'll give you a call, or you give me one or let's give one to each other.

Talk to you soon,

Cheers,

P.S. I made it to the gold mine. Great story, although my photos are predictably a mess.
