Dear Mr Hayes,

For more than two decades I have been a frequent traveller in South East Asia. I have visited Cambodia a number of times the last being in 1997 and 1998. I have travelled as widely in the country as circumstances have permitted me but, now that circumstances have changed somewhat I am keen to travel further and more widely.

My next trip will be from about the middle of July to the middle of August and while climatic conditions will not be ideal I want to move around as much as is feasible. I am writing a novel which is set, largely, in Cambodia and I am also researching a work of non-fiction. To that end I am currently doing research and I wonder if it might be possible to make some use of your library. Indeed, I would very much like to meet you and others to chat. Of particular interest are the socio-economic changes which are taking place in your country and, of course, matters of current attention such as the possible (or proposed?) human rights trials which are being considered.

I would very much like to hear from you and I hope to meet you when I am in Cambodia.

Yours sincerely

Bruce Clark

P.S.

I am called Bruce but my given name, as in my Australian passport, is Leslie. I am contactable at the Stroud address; my Fax is: (44) 1 453 752916 and my email is: kipmcgrath@stroudprint.co.uk

If Michael Grainger is still your London representative I would be grateful to have his number.
