

B.

From the Indus to the Tigris

BELLEW

- Surgeon Bengal Staff Corps.
Journey in 1872

Trubner & Co.
London 1874

p. 469.

We witnessed a review of the Turkish troops - splendid men admirably equipped with the Snider pattern

breach-loaders -

H. E. Muhammed Khan Pasha - with Admiralty workshops - Ordnance stores, barracks, hospitals & other
mil. establishments - good discipline

p. 470.

The barracks a handsome pile fronting the river, had been built on the European model by a Belgian architect.

After 11/1/74

Hospital under supervision of W. & Station doctor.

Shed of Industry - Jail - The light of Western improvement had not yet shed its rays on this dept.

471. Duxley - 16th July -

Heat insupportable - Melon rinds thrown from the boat create frantic efforts for possession.

