I have a very bad toothache in my left lower jaw, which has been getting worse every day since the 1st of June. I have stuffed it today with silver, but since the pain comes on worse I tried every thing on it, but the nerve would not get away of, all the night

I suffered most awfully & could not sleep for a minute at midnight I scraped the silver off, but to no use, I put Brandy, Wash, Whisky, ac-cense of Carbolic Acid etc etc for more & a worse pain The Cold water seems to calm the nerve more than anything else. I slept thru for about 2 hours but got very weak today No pain in the morning as the nerve has swollen a little

At 7.20 passed Menelaus fine clear weather. Some fog came on at 2 & passed, we lost 13 passengers from Coat.

The pain recommenced at about 2 P.M. in spite of the Cold water which is the only thing I am using now.

At 3.50 P.M. passed Ozish Village. Weather begun to get

 (middle) 1:10

At 5 P.M. we got underway from Baerch just as the flood is making. We were delayed 15 minutes for a Belen with the Police people who were given passports to the passengers & went into their Belen.
 After we had gone on & the Belen got swamped & they cleared to our launch & then so Michael Yaghehi's Belen which was leaving when we were in and then went on.
 We had our supper at Baerch & then went to the Bahel & then to the Bahel.
