13. August 1999

Dear Mr. Hayes,

on invitation of Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation the former Minister of Labour and Social Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany, Dr. Norbert Blüm, Vice President of the Christian Democratic Union (CDU) and member of the commission for development aid of the German Parliament will visit Cambodia from 21. - 24. of August. The main purpose of his visit is to evaluate the actual political and socio economic situation in Cambodia in order to define and influence the future policy and development cooperation of Germany with Cambodia.

During his stay in Cambodia Dr. Blüm will visit development projects and institutions in Phnom Penh and Battambang and will meet - among others - Deputy Prime Minister Sar Kheng, Minister Sok An, the President of the National Assembly Prince Rannaridh and Mr. Sam Rainsy.

On Sunday, 22. August, 12.00 noon, we will organize with Dr. Blüm a lunch and round table with Cambodian and international journalists on the political situation and the development perspectives in Cambodia. The place of this round table is the Hotel Le Royal.

We would like to invite you to this meeting and would feel very honoured if you could arrange your time to join. Please inform our office until 18. August on your participation.

Yours sincerely

Peter Köppinger
