4 JARANAN (HORSE DANCE) 13:30

Traditions of dance featuring woven bamboo horses (jaran kepong) and masked dance from Java, Indonesia, have inspired the movements and music of the dance we are presenting this evening. The accompanying musical compositions played on the gamelan—an ensemble comprised largely of metal keyed instruments and gongs—include JARAN KORÈ, WALANG KÈKÈK and KEMBANG KACANG. There is a close relationship between the drumming and the dance movements, which is reinforced by the bells the dancers wear on their right ankles. In some contexts in Java, dancers go into trance, sometimes nudging viewers into the performance space to participate.
