

PRESS RELEASE

Embassy of Japan in Cambodia

September 8th, 2003

Japanese Film Show

September 13th, 2003 at 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.
at the Embassy of Japan

The Embassy of Japan has started Bi-Monthly Japanese Film Show to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Establishment of Diplomatic Relations between Cambodia and Japan and also the Japan-Ascan Exchange Year 2003, at the Multipurpose Hall of the Embassy.

This time is the third show. It will be held twice on September 13th (Sat.) from 14:00 p.m. (English sub-title only) and from 16:00 p.m. (with Khmer Sub-title). The film will be "Kikujiro", a story about the adventure of a boy named Masao and a man named Kikujiro who is rude, loud-mouthed and irresponsible person. The Director of the film is Mr. Takeshi Kitano, the prize winner of Venice International Film Festival.

The Admission Fee is FREE.

The fourth show is scheduled on December 6th (Sat.) and the title will be announced later.