Dear Bernie,

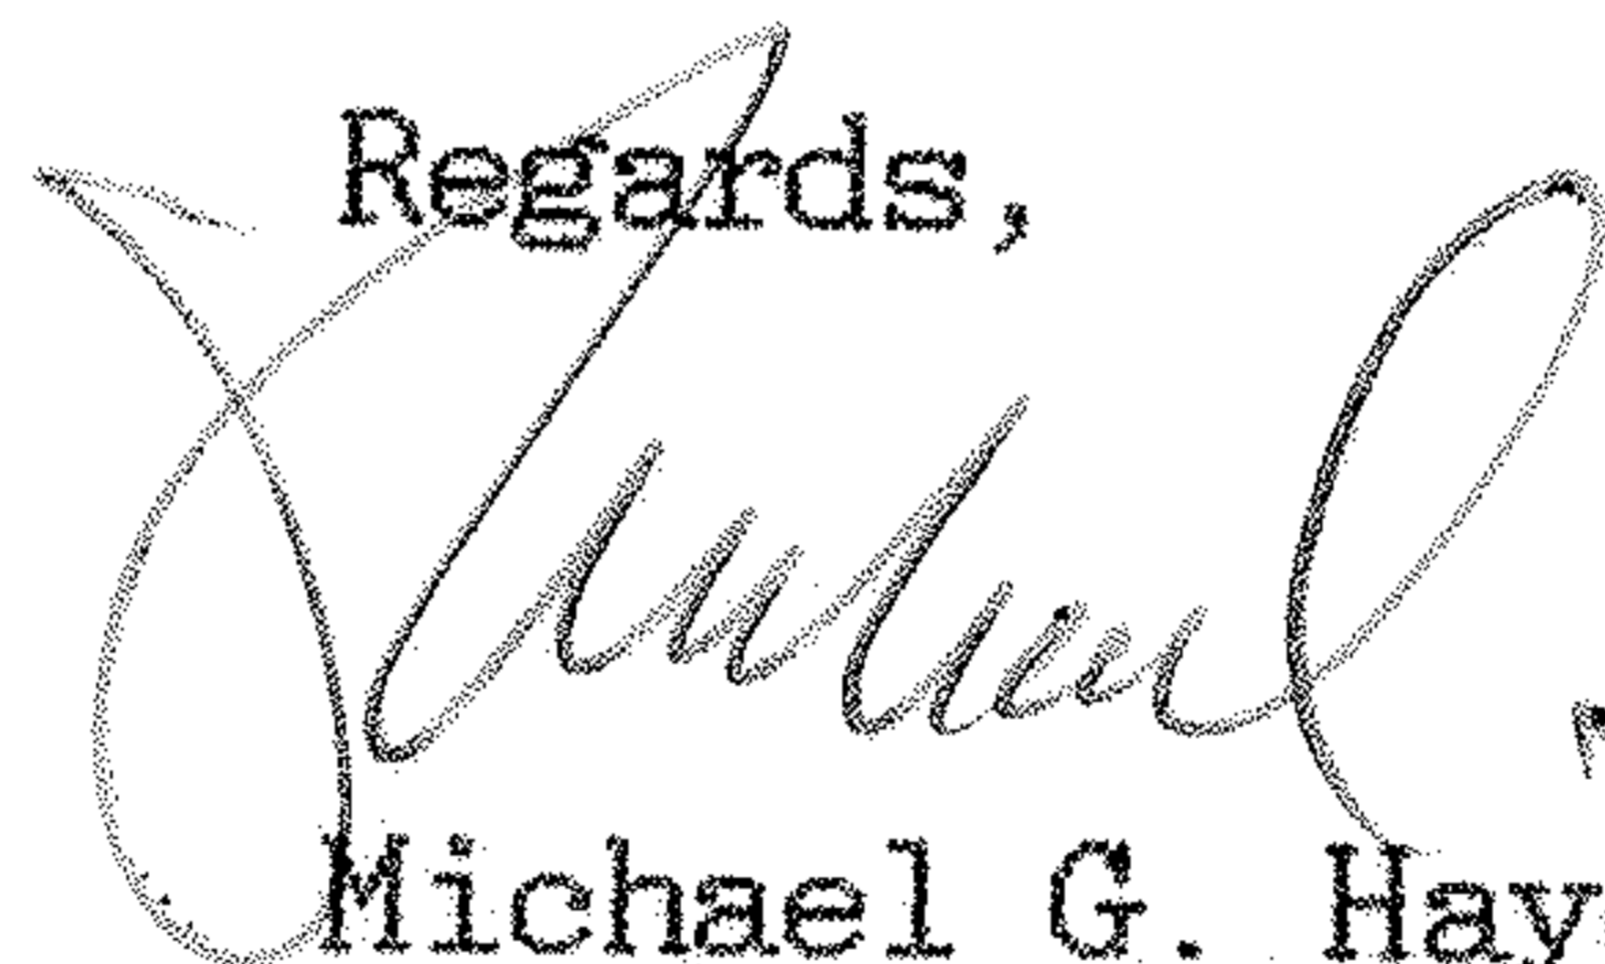

When you next come to Cambodia please plan to spend as much time as possible with me so that we can go over again your plans/ideas to set up a daily newspaper. I feel in somewhat of a more comfortable position now to consider seriously what would be a major expansion for us, i.e. produce a daily, but with sufficient resources I think it could be done. Of course, my major concern is how we subsidize it, especially if it is to run in the red, as you expect, for any length of time.

I'm sending you by regular airmail back issues of every copy we've produced since you were here last and I've also added your name to our regular subscriber list.

Your letter arrived on my desk on January 21.

See you soon,

Regards,

Michael G. Hayes
