1. As a result of student demands for administrative reform at the National University of El Salvador (UES), the present university structure of eight faculties will probably include the Schools of Humanities, Health Sciences, Agriculture, Engineering, and Economics and Law. The School of Health Sciences will encompass the present Faculties of Dentistry, Medicine, and Chemistry and Pharmacy. The Faculties of Law and Economics are to be combined into the School of Economics and Law. Some minor adjustments in the curriculum of the common areas program are also planned. The implementation of these structural changes is scheduled to begin in the summer of 1970.

2. The Superior University Council, the administrative governing body at the UES, is completely under the control of ~~Fabio Castillo Rigueroa~~, extreme leftist and Dean of the Faculty of Sciences and Humanities; ~~Maria Isabel Rodriguez~~, Sympathizer of the Communist Party of El Salvador (PCES) and Dean of the Medical Faculty; and Miguel Angel ~~Saena Varela~~, member of the Central Committee of THE the PCES and a UES professor. The Superior University Council has been working closely with pro-Communist university workers and with leftist and Communist students. Prior to the 8 March congressional elections, the University Council endorsed student demonstrations, which ended in violence and vandalism.

3. Castillo is emerging as the most powerful leader at the UES, primarily because of the success of his efforts to appease the students in order to protect his position and enhance his image. UES professors are well aware that Castillo is determined to oust Jose Maria "Chema" Mendez as UES rector. Rodriguez and Saenz are helping Castillo accomplish this objective.
