The University of Washington Jazz Choir is a highly motivate group of student musicians with a powerful thirst for producing the finest in vocal jazz. With a heavy emphasis on sight reading, improvisation, variety in musical styles, blend and vocal balance and the art of performance techniques, the U Dub Jazz Choir is inspired to achieve the highest of musical standards.

Directed by Frank DeMiero, the students in the U Dub Jazz Choir receive professional instruction focusing on rhythmic vitality, phrasing, tonal colors, jazz articulations, improvisation and the excitement of producing one of America's only true art forms, Jazz.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the U Dub Jazz Choir, please call 543-1200 or 771-0824 or write to:
