

Podcast: Multiculturalism and Racial Conflict in LA's "Little Bronze Tokyo," 1941-1947

Submitted as a final project for HSTCMP 202 A (AUT 2020)

Instructors: Taylor Soja, Laurie Marhoefer

Description: After the end of Japanese American internment, many Japanese Americans returned to their homes in LA's "Little Tokyo" to find it nicknamed "Bronzeville." The area had been settled by African-American migrants who moved west during the Great Migration. This podcast explores the racial tensions and multi-cultural alliances that emerged in this LA neighborhood.

"Multiculturalism and Racial Conflict in LA's 'Little Bronze Tokyo,' 1941-1947" was featured on the HSTCMP 202: World Wars I & II course website.
