

British Embassy
Phnom Penh

Dear Editors in Chief,

We have the honour to inform you that Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador, HE David Reader, will present a cheque for US$3,071 on behalf of Mrs Pat Jerrard to the Director of Mith Samlanh - FRIENDS, Mrs. Ly Sophat, on 22nd March 2005 at 1500 at FRIENDS Organisation.

Mrs Pat Jerrard is the mother of Simon Wareham, a British traveller, who died whilst staying in Phnom Penh in late 2004. The cheque is from financial donations made in Simon's memory by his friends and family. At the request of Mrs Pat Jerrard, the cheque will be passed on to the Mith Samlah (FRIENDS) Organisation. The funding will be used for the work of Mith Samlanh (FRIENDS) to assist disadvantaged children in Cambodia.

We hope you find this ceremony interesting and we would be pleased to welcome your reporters to the above event

For further information, please contact the British Embassy Phnom Penh at 023 427 124.

Mith Samlanh (FRIENDS) is located at: # 215, Street 13, Phnom Penh
