

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

presents

Wilhelmine Schaeffer-Creel, Pianist

and

The University String Orchestra

George C. Kirchner, Director

in music by

Johann Sebastian Bach

Tuesday, January 14, 1941 Meany Hall 8:30 o'clock

PROGRAM

Overture: String Orchestra and Flute

Grave — Allegro

Rondeau: Allegro

Sarabande: Andante

Badinerie: Vivace

Pauline Bergseth, Flute

Partita in C minor

Sinfonia

Allemande

Courante

Sarabande

Rondeau

Capriccio

Italian Concerto

Allegro moderato

Andante

Presto

Intermission

Concerto No. III for Two Violins and Orchestra

Vivace

Allegro

Chromatic Fantasia and Fugue

Concerto in F minor for Piano and Orchestra

Allegro moderato

Largo

Presto

The University Choral organizations will join the University Temple Choir in a performance of Haydn's "Creation" Sunday, January 19, at 4 o'clock in the University Temple. . . . The next orchestra concert will be given Tuesday evening, January 28. . . . Mrs. Creel will be heard in a program of music by Scarlatti, Haydn and Mozart on Tuesday evening, February 4, in Anderson Hall at 8:30 o'clock.
