ELECTION 2003

DAY 18

"March to stop violence against women"

HRH Princess Norodom Vacheahra, FUNCINPEC lawmaker and candidate for election 2003, will lead other female candidates, activists and supporters through the streets of Phnom Penh on Sunday 13th July.

FUNCINPEC calls on all female politicians and all women and men to join this walk for peace, non-violence, dignity and justice for women victims of violence. Over 1,000 women are expected to join the march.

HRH will reveal the contract that FUNCINPEC will make with women to stop all forms of violence against women. The contract will include: protection of victims, prosecution of perpetrators, a long term grassroots movement to change social behavior to protect the full human rights of women.

The march will commence at "Chenla Theater" and visit markets in Phnom Penh culminating in the release of the party contract at "Phsar Thmey market".
