Lola Wolf began her musical studies at an early age. In high school she debuted as an organ soloist with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Leonard Slatkin. Her education in piano, organ and harpsichord began at the College of St. Benedict in Minnesota. After completing an MFA in Organ Performance and Pedagogy at the University of Iowa, she continued in that school's doctoral program as a teaching assistant. Teachers have included Cecile Gortken OSB, Charles Echols, Gerhard Krapf, Delbert Disselhorst, and Guy Bovet. Recent performances include the Messe de la Pendecote and Le Corps Glorieux by Olivier Messiaen, choreographed and performed by dancer Jules Mueller of Krakow, Poland. Works in progress include the recording of the four Magnificat Suites by Jean Guilain (plainchant sung) by the Schola of St. Benedict’s Convent, recording engineer Michael Barlow.

Ms. Wolf is a freelance artist living in the Seattle area.
